

The British Psychological Society

Promoting excellence in psychology

Terms & conditions for the purchase of an enhanced entry on the Directory of Qualified Testers

- All claims made in entries must be supported by appropriate evidence which should be made available to the publisher (PTC) if requested;
- Entries should avoid direct quotations and testimonials;
- Comparisons should not be made with other products or services and no attempt should be made to be critical of other individuals, companies, products or services;
- Prices of entrants' own services or products are acceptable, but comparison of prices with competitive products or services is unacceptable;
- Entries should not offer special terms for members of The British Psychological Society nor members of the Register of Qualifications in Test Use (RQTU);
- All entries must conform to The UK Code of Non-broadcast Advertising, Sales Promotion and Direct Marketing (CAP Code);
- Entrants may make reference to the levels of test user qualification obtained from the Society which appear on their online profile on the Register of Qualifications in Test Use (RQTU), including the names of instruments in which they have been awarded qualification as a Test User: Occupational, Personality;
- Entrants who are Chartered Psychologists may make reference to this in their entry.

The Psychological Testing Centre reserves the right to return 200 word entries to the applicant for revision, where the description directly contravenes the terms & conditions outlined above. The Society reserves the right to remove entries in the case of professional misconduct. In such cases the fee will not be refunded.

