

The British Psychological Society

Promoting excellence in psychology

Terms & conditions applicable to enhanced entries on the Directory of Test Publishers & Test Distributors

Where entrants have multiple functions or services, they may use the following statement in addition to their 200 word entry to direct enquirers to a separate directory: 'Please see our entry on the Directory of Providers (Assessment/Training)'.

- All claims made in entries must be supported by appropriate evidence which should be made available to the Psychological Testing Centre, if requested;
- Entries should avoid direct quotations and testimonials;
- Comparisons should not be made with other products or services and no attempt should be made to be critical of other individuals, companies, products or services;
- Prices of entrants' own services or products are acceptable, but comparison of prices with competitive products or services is unacceptable;
- Entries should not offer special terms for members of The British Psychological Society nor members of the Register of Qualifications in Test Use (RQTU);
- All entries must conform to The UK Code of Non-broadcast Advertising, Sales Promotion and Direct Marketing (CAP Code);
- Entries may describe the full range of products offered by test publishers and test distributors, but they must not make reference to training in psychological testing (this is the purpose of the Directory of Providers: Assessment/Training);
- Entries may refer to levels of Society qualification required to access specific tests.

The Psychological Testing Centre reserves the right to return 200 word entries to the applicant for revision, where the description directly contravenes the terms & conditions outlined above. The Society reserves the right to remove entries in the case of professional misconduct. In such cases the fee will not be refunded.

