Advertising opportunities directed at the test user market

Assessment & Development Matters is the Psychological Testing Centre's quarterly publication sent out to over 11,000 qualified educational, forensic and occupational test users in the UK and overseas, who retain an entry on the Register of Qualifications in Test Use (RQTU).

It is the UK's only specialist magazine available in its market which reaches certified test users. Test users include HR personnel, local government and education authorities, students, psychologists, teachers and freelance testers.

Assessment & Development Matters delivers an editorial mix that provides the latest information on testing matters. Registered test users receive a hard copy of the magazine and can access back issues via our website. An e-magazine version is available to purchase by the general public, via the online BPS Shop.
