

Consent form

Congratulations on completing your training in test use. In order to register your qualifications with the British Psychological Society (BPS), please complete Sections A, B (if applicable), C and D and send this form to your assessor. Your assessor will then send an affirmation of competence form to the BPS.

Please note that this is a template form and your assessor may choose to use an alternative form produced by their employer or company.

Section A

Authorisation for the release of personal details below to the British Psychological Society

I give permission for my assessor to release my personal details below to the British Psychological Society in order to apply for a BPS qualification in test use and an entry on to the Register of Qualifications in Test Use \(RQTU\). Please see the leaflet BPS Qualification in Test Use for details about the benefits of applying to register your qualifications with the BPS.

I understand I will receive invoices for the payment of fees for the relevant level(s) – see section on Qualifications and Fees at www.psychtesting.org.uk

Section D

Quality assurance process

The British Psychological Society will ask to review delegate portfolios as part of their quality assurance for assessors. If you consent, your portfolio could be chosen for this process.

To comply with the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018), together with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), assessors are responsible for anonymising portfolios before submitting them using a secure method.

Please tick one of the following boxes:

- I give my consent for my assessor to submit my portfolio to the BPS and understand that I can withdraw consent at any time.
- I do not give my consent.
